Guidelines for Oral Presentation in BIIRC2023

The Guidelines to Presenters of BIIRC2023 are as follows.

- Each presenter will be allocated a maximum of 10 minutes for an oral presentation and 5 minutes to answer questions.
- Limit your slide presentation (MS PowerPoint) to a maximum of 10 slides.
- Reinforce the specific concepts from your study work during the allotted time. Share knowledge and resources to aid participants in their planning, teaching, and/or research projects.
- Please submit the soft copy of your oral presentation to the research conference via BIIRC email (biirc@esoft.lk) on or before 05th September 2023. We are not responsible for later submissions, further changes after the deadline of the presentation submission or any other changes.
- Note: Your presentation should be named as your Paper ID.pptx
- The Programme Schedule will be emailed to you in due course.
- Please note that ALL participants including presenters need to register following the instructions provided to you via email.
- We appreciate your interest in and dedication to the active interchange of cutting-edge concepts, best practices, fresh perspectives, and helpful tools to advance teaching, research, and/or planning, by participating at BIIRC2023!
